

Yvonne Stalling, BComm (Hons) has over 40 years experience in various fields of accounting, including running her own accounting practice in Cape Town, South Africa. Besides accounting, she has also owned or managed other businesses in the travel, clothing and real estate industries. While at university, she performed research work for the Readers Digest. This awakened her interest in research, particularly in the area of health, which led to research of EMF and the resulting damage caused to all forms of life. She retired from full-time work in 2021 and is delighted to be able to help out at ORSAA.